Welcome

Congratulations on your engagement and upcoming wedding! I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the My Shadi Bridal Expo.

This cultural event showcases traditional products and services essential for Hindu, Muslim, Christian, and Sikh weddings. A wide range of vendors, including wedding and event planners, photographers, caterers, and decorators will be available to answer your questions and provide you with information about their services and products.

In addition to great formal event planning resources, outfit designs, and food samples, don't miss the fashion shows that will showcase the latest in formal clothing and jewelry designs. Be sure to enjoy the entertainment performances as you peruse the booths.

Good luck to all who have registered to win a free trip to India! If you have not yet registered to enter the grand prize and raffle drawings, you still have time. Stop by the registration desk to enter.

Last but not least, I would like to thank everyone involved with this event. This event would not be a success without the support of Expo attendees, show participants, and vendors.

Enjoy the Expo and good luck with all of your wedding and event planning!

Fort Lauderdale MyShadi Bridal Expo 2012

Desh-Videsh Media Group proudly presents the MyShadi Bridal Expo in Fort Lauderdale on Sunday, April 29, 2012. Having consistently produced the finest South Asian Bridal shows in Southeast United States for the last three years, this cultural event showcases unique products and services essential for Hindu, Muslim, Christian, and Sikh weddings and provides soon-to-be-weds a one-stop shop to make wedding dreams a reality.

The MyShadi Bridal Expo is designed with the needs of brides in mind. Exhibit areas are planned to allow foot traffic and enable couples and their families with direct access to booths and vendors. Exciting promotions, raffle drawings, and the chance to win a free trip to India draw large crowds giving businesses an opportunity for face-to-face marketing. For brides and vendors alike, face time with one another is important, and shows like the MyShadi Bridal Expo make it easier for those connections to happen.

This year, the MyShadi Bridal Expo in Fort Lauderdale is well on its way to becoming yet another unique and hands-on experience for all attendees. For the first time ever, vendors directly from India will be joining the Expo, including two clothing boutiques (one for brides and another for grooms) and a prominent jeweler. Mehndi and make-up artists will be doing live demonstrations once an hour to give brides ideas of looks for their wedding day. Brides and their families can also enter raffles for fabulous prizes, including a free honeymoon trip to India, provided by Platinum Sponsor

Qatar Airways and 7M Tours.

Attendees will also be dazzled by two unique fashion shows that will highlight the latest trends in wedding and formal fashions. A wide range of event planning vendors will be on hand to showcase their products and services. Mandaps and reception table settings will be on display to guide brides and their families in their wedding planning decisions. Photographers will be available to present their work and discuss their style, which is sure to put couples and their families at ease. Caterers and bakeries will be offering guest delectable samples. Guests will even be able to shop on site for clothing, jewelry, and accessories.

Join us at this one of a kind bridal event, which will include over 60 booths placed in a classy and elegant layout designed to create an ambiance of splendor will be appealing to brides-to-be and their families.

MyShadi Bridal Expo welcomes the opportunity to work with Platinum Sponsors Fort Lauderdale Marriott Coral Springs Hotel, TV Asia, Qatar Airways, 7M Tours and The Arpan Group.
